The Good News of a Savior Who Brings Good from Evil

Thursday & Sunday, April 3 & 6, 2025

10:45 AM Pre-Service Song “God Is In This Story”

As We Gather

One of the most popular and lasting musicals of the past decades has been Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. Originally written in 1968 as a fifteen-minute-long pop cantata for a performance at the Colet Court School in London, Joseph has grown in length and popularity. It has been presented in theaters around the world, from London’s West End to Broadway and beyond, launching the lasting careers of collaborators Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice. What has endeared the musical to thousands of performers and audience members is its colorful characters, catchy music, and the themes of forgiveness and new beginnings that shine through the presentation. The story of Joseph is one in which the handiwork of God to bring good out of evil is clearly evident. The original story of Joseph from the book of Genesis is a clear preview of the Passion story, how Jesus brings good out of evil for our sakes, for us to learn from in this Lenten season.

6:30 PM & 8:15 AM Opening Hymn “Be Still, My Soul” LSB 752

10:45 AM Opening Song “All The People Said Amen”

Invocation

P: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. C: Amen.

Psalm Psalm 143

P: Hear my prayer, O LORD; give ear to my pleas for mercy! In Your faithfulness answer me, in Your righteousness!

C: Enter not into judgment with Your servant, for no one living is righteous before You.

P: For the enemy has pursued my soul; he has crushed my life to the ground; he has made me sit in darkness like those long dead.

C: Therefore my spirit faints within me; my heart within me is appalled.

P: I remember the days of old; I meditate on all that You have done; I ponder the work of Your hands.

C: I stretch out my hands to You; my soul thirsts for You like a parched land.

- P: Answer me quickly, O LORD! My spirit fails! Hide not Your face from me, lest I be like those who go down to the pit.
- C: Let me hear in the morning of Your steadfast love, for in You I trust. Make me know the way I should go, for to You I lift up my soul.
- P: Deliver me from my enemies, O LORD! I have fled to You for refuge!
- C: Teach me to do Your will, for You are my God! Let Your good Spirit lead me on level ground!
- P: For Your name's sake, O LORD, preserve my life! In Your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble!
- C: And in Your steadfast love You will cut off my enemies, and You will destroy all the adversaries of my soul, for I am Your servant.
- C: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

6:30 PM & 8:15 AM Hymn Introduction

Reader 1: A classic form of Christian music is the sacred oratorio. It is an extended sequence of musical pieces that includes solos, choral anthems, and hymns sung by the congregation attending the musical presentation. Among the most widely presented oratorios is “The Crucifixion,” which is a favorite Lenten choral work both in the United States and Great Britain. The composer of the music for the oratorio, Sir John Stainer, is known for his masterful musical expression. The text, by William Sparrow Simpson, uses a series of strong literary images to direct our devotion to Jesus, whose place of sacrifice for the sins of the world becomes a “cross of sorrow” and the lasting symbol of the divine sacrifice that paid the price of the sins of all mankind.

Reader 2: William Sparrow Simpson, writer of the hymn text, had a long life—from 1860 to 1952—and a masterful career as a writer of scholarly Christian literature. Reflecting the Victorian era in which it was written, his libretto text for “The Crucifixion” uses a high standard of English language as it speaks of that divine mission that brought the very Son of God to earth to suffer and die to bring about reconciliation between God and His fallen creatures. “O mysterious condescending” and “O abandonment sublime” are not phrases we might use every day, but their strength and beauty witness to the greatness of our Lord's sacrifice and testify to His wondrous love.

6:30 PM & 8:15 AM Hymn of Praise "Cross of Jesus, Cross of Sorrow" LSB 428 (Tune LSB 427)

10:45 AM Song of Praise "Our God"

First Reading Genesis 50:15–21

L: (after the reading)...L: This is the Word of the Lord. C: Thanks be to God.

Second Reading Romans 8:28–39

L: We know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to His purpose. For those whom He foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, in order that He might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those whom He predestined He also called, and those whom He called He also justified, and those whom He justified He also glorified.

C: What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all, how will He not also with Him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.

L: Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written, "For Your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered."

C: No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

L: This is the Word of the Lord. C: Thanks be to God.

L: Please rise as you are able for the reading of the Holy Gospel.

Holy Gospel Matthew 26:47–56

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the twenty-sixth chapter.

C: Glory to You, O Lord. (after the reading)...

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Holy Communion is celebrated at Redeemer in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that we may show forth His death until He comes. We ask visitors who are in doubt or hold a confession differing from that of this congregation, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, to first speak with a pastor.

Our worship services will continue to be available, traditional &/or contemporary, on our website: www.redeemersiouxcity.com or you can like us on Facebook or find us on YouTube.
