INDEPENDENCE DAY

“One Nation, Under God”

Thursday & Sunday, July 2 & 5, 2026

As We Gather

Although the major focus of national celebration in the Year of Our Lord 2026 in the United States is the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, there is another memorable anniversary to be noted as well: 2026 is the 235th anniversary of the ratification of the Bill of Rights by the first US Congress. The very first words of the very first amendment within the list of additional guarantees added to the Constitution of the United States in 1791 known as the Bill of Rights states: “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof.” That solemn guarantee enables us to gather freely to worship God without fear of disturbance or reprisal. As we gather, we can reflect on what a blessing religious freedom is ours in this God-blessed nation. Happy anniversary, United States of America!

✠ PREPARATION ✠

10:45 AM Pre-Service Song "America The Beautiful"

6:30 PM & 8:15 AM Opening Hymn "God of Our Fathers" LW 501

10:45 AM Opening Song "Good God Almighty"

Invocation

P: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. C: Amen.

Opening Sentences

P: Great is our Lord, and abundant in power; His understanding is beyond measure.

C: All Your works shall give thanks to You, O LORD, and all Your saints shall bless You!

P: Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name; worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness.

C: Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to Your name give glory, for the sake of Your steadfast love and Your faithfulness!

P: Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people whom He has chosen as His heritage!

C: Let Your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in You.

Confession and Absolution

P: I love the LORD, because He has heard my voice

C: and my pleas for mercy.

P: Our help is in the name of the LORD,

C: who made heaven and earth.

P: Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

C: Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, mighty Judge of all people, we admit and confess our sinfulness. We have not lived up to our calling as Your faithful people. So often we have done the evil You forbid and too many times have not done the good You demand. We do repent and are truly sorry for our sins in thought, word, and deed. Have mercy on us, merciful Father, for the sake of Jesus Christ, Your Son.

Forgive us all that needs Your forgiving grace, and with the power of the Holy Spirit, direct us to serve You faithfully all our days, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

P: God has promised His merciful forgiveness to those who repent of their sins and turn to Him in confession. In His stead and by His command, therefore, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. C: Amen.

P: May our God keep you in His grace by the Holy Spirit, lead you in ways of faith and obedience, and finally bring you to live with Him forever, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. C: Amen.

Prayer of the Day

P: O God, the author of peace and lover of concord, You have blessed our nation over many years. Graciously continue to watch over this land, that we may rejoice in Your abiding protection and serve You with gladness of heart; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and rules with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. C: Amen.

10:45 AM Song of Praise "How Great Is Our God"

Celebration Sequence

P: Today we thank God as we celebrate 250 years of God's blessings on the United States of America. The psalmist writes: "Praise the LORD! For it is good to sing praises to our God; for it is pleasant, and a song of praise is fitting" (Psalm 147:1). As part of our celebration this day, we sing our thanks for living in what truly is a God-blessed land.

C: We thank God for the land that is our home—a land of mountains and seashores, of rivers and forests. This is a rich and fruitful land, a land that has supplied generations with its bounty. The psalmist writes: "Let the redeemed of the LORD . . . thank the LORD for His steadfast love, for His wondrous works to the children of men" (Psalm 107:2a, 21).

P: We bless God for the peace that our nation has known on its shores for two and a half centuries. And we give our thanks for the generations of military men and women who have lived devotedly and even died sacrificially to keep the freedoms that we enjoy and to maintain the peace that we know here in our land. King David wrote in one of his psalms: "But You, O LORD, are a shield about me, my glory, and the lifter of my head" (Psalm 3:3).

C: We give glory to God for the United States that each of us knows, no matter what location in this vast country we call home. In a heartfelt exclamation centuries ago, King David the psalmist wrote: "May the LORD give strength to His people! May the LORD bless His people with peace!" (Psalm 29:11). Peace and prosperity have been blessings from God in these United States for two and a half centuries. Confident of future blessings and with true thankfulness, we can echo the words of Psalm 126, which summed up the sentiment of God's people: "The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad"

Sermon

Nicene Creed

Prayer of the Church

P: Let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs. Let us pray for the whole Christian Church, that through it the will of God may be done among us upon earth and that in it we may rejoice in hearing the Good News of the Gospel, and let us also pray for our nation, where we celebrate the freedom to gather for worship in the name of the Lord.

C: Lord, while for humankind we pray of ev'ry clime and coast, Lord, hear us for our native land, the land we love the most!

P: Let us pray for peace and tranquility in our country, asking the Lord's blessing on the agriculture and commerce of these United States, and let us also pray for the armed forces of our nation, that those who serve in them may find satisfaction in their given duties and a sense of accomplishment in the protection of our nation and its people.

C: Oh, guard our shores from ev'ry foe, with peace our borders bless, with prosp'rous times our cities crown, our fields with plenteousness!

P: Let us pray for our nation, that it may shine as a beacon of hope to the world, and let us pray for our communities, that kindness, goodness, and mercy may be the hallmarks of our lives together.

C: Unite us in the sacred love of all that's good and true; and let our hills and valleys shout their songs, all praising You.

P: Let us pray for our congregation, that it may reach out with the love of Christ, and let us also pray for the Gospel, that it may be proclaimed without hindrance throughout our land.

C: Here may Your Gospel, pure and mild, renew our Sabbath hours and piety and virtue bless our fathers' home and ours.

P: Let us pray that our nation may continue as "one nation, under God, with liberty and justice for all" for this present time and for generations yet to come. In Jesus' name, we pray.

C: Lord of the nations, thus to You our country we commend. Oh, be her refuge and her trust, her everlasting friend.

ALL* Services: Closing Hymn "Star Spangled Banner"

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming? Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thru the perilous fight, O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming? And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there. O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Holy Communion is celebrated at Redeemer in the confession and glad confidence that, as He says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us, that we may show forth His death until He comes. We ask visitors who are in doubt or hold a confession differing from that of this congregation, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, to first speak with a pastor.

Our worship services will continue to be available, traditional &/or contemporary, on our website: www.redeemersiouxcity.com or you can like us on Facebook or find us on YouTube.

Building Healthy Families: What are some of your best childhood memories? Psychologist Mary Pipher says there are three things that most people usually remember with great happiness from childhood -- time spent outdoors, vacations and family meals. During these long summer days, spend time with your children or grandchildren outdoors. Take some time off work…plan a picnic…explore a new park or hiking trail. Let your children or grandchildren help choose the spot. You don't have to go far from home or spend a lot of money to create forever memories! www.LutheranFamilyService.org Lutheran Family Service
